A Day at the Chrysler Museum of Art
Friday, February 6, 2015

The day will include:

A conversation with guest curator Jeff Harrison

Informal lecture in the Meso-American gallery by VCU professor James Farmer

Informal lecture about Spanish Baroque painting by Michael Schreffler

Free time to explore the recently renovated and expanded galleries. The Chrysler Museum holds an encyclopedic collection of over 30,000 artworks.

Cost: $15 round-trip bus transportation from Richmond to Norfolk, Virginia
Bus departs Richmond at 8:30 am & leaves the museum at 3:00 pm.

Space is limited to 50 students.
To reserve your seat: Hand-deliver payment and registration form to Cynthia Myron in the Department of Art History, 922 W. Franklin Street.

Registration forms can be downloaded at: arts.vcu.edu/arthistory
For more information, contact: arthistory@vcu.edu