VCUarts Qatar is the Qatar campus of the prestigious Virginia Commonwealth University School of the Arts in Richmond, Virginia. Established in 2005 through a partnership with Qatar Foundation, VCUarts Qatar offers students the opportunity to earn a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in graphic design, interior design, fashion design and painting & printmaking, a Bachelor of Arts degree in art history and a Master of Fine Arts degree in design.

In addition to a comprehensive studio arts public courses program that includes a wide range of exhibitions, lecture and fashion events, the University hosts the biennial international design conference Tasmeem and the biennial Hamad bin Khalifa Symposium on Islamic Art, attracting globally recognized designers, academics and disease writers fostering sustainable, active university-community partnerships that enhance the educational, economic and cultural vitality of Qatar.

VCUarts Qatar students have access to the latest technology and state-of-the-art facilities, including a visual effects studio and other media facilities, 3D printing, fabrication laboratories, and a materials library.

VCUarts Qatar graduates are pursuing successful careers within the small and medium enterprise culture in Qatar and around the world. Many graduates have gone on to establish their own businesses, contributing to the development of the small and medium enterprise culture in Qatar.
