VCU Jazz Day

VCU Jazz is working on plans for a virtual VCU Jazz Day on Saturday, January 30, an invitational event for which high school students from across the region attend VCU (remotely this year) to explore jazz with a number of our faculty. As in previous years, this event will be by invitation from the VCU Director of Jazz Studies only and is focused on intermediate and advanced high school jazz students. High school music directors may nominate their talented students. For more information, contact <ajgarcia@vcu.edu>.

VCU Greater Richmond High School Jazz Band

Having successfully held jazz ensembles this semester, VCU Jazz is exploring the potential for the next season of the GRHSJB using the same protocols, with auditions in early January. Under the direction of Prof. Antonio García, the ensemble traditionally meets most Sundays 2-4p. If you’re a high school student in the Richmond region interested in working with your peers from a dozen other high schools towards some swinging performances—or if you’re a teacher of those students—please stay tuned for further information.
