

VCU JAZZ DAY SCHEDULE & IMAGE CONSENT FORM 2022

VCU JAZZ DAY SCHEDULE:

Thank you for your interest in VCU Jazz Day! This event will be held Saturday, January 29, 2022 from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., concluding with a public concert at 3 p.m. in Sonia Vlahcevic Concert Hall in the W.E. Singleton Center for the Performing Arts (free admission, with masks currently required for all attendees).

YOUR COMMITMENT:

Students who accept our invitation to this day at no charge (including lunch!) must complete, sign, and return this page to me with the signature of a parent or guardian. This form acknowledges that student and parent recognize their commitment to the student's attendance that day. Such commitment is required because each of the specific Jazz Day combos' personnel are assigned in advance of students' arrival that morning: substitutes are not necessarily easily found, and food costs must be correctly estimated.

Until this form is received by Prof. García, VCU's Director of Jazz Studies, students will not be assigned potential chairs for Jazz Day. Please scan or photograph your form clearly, and e-mail it to <ajgarcia@vcu.edu>.

YOUR PARENT'S COMMITMENT:

"I understand that by completing this form, my child is committing to be available for VCU Jazz Day as printed above. I understand that current required protocols include masked faculty and use of a mask on my child and, for aerosol-producing instruments, bell covers. I confirm that s/he and I understand that students who cannot fulfill this commitment to Jazz Day should not return this form to you. I also understand that photo and video images may be taken of my child in the rehearsal or performance environment that may later be published, potentially with a roster of participant names and participating schools, for public relations and advertising purposes so that VCU Jazz Day may continue its community outreach."
