Faculty Guest Soloists

Renowned as champion of new, genre-busting music, Yamaha Performing Artist Rex Richardson was named the 2008 Brass Herald International Personality of the Year. With a reputation unique in the trumpet world for his combination of singular virtuosity, deep lyricism, and mastery of improvisation in multiple idioms, he has been called “One of the finest virtuosos of our time” (Brass Herald, 2018) “a standout soloist with the power, range and flexibility to rival Freddie Hubbard and Woody Shaw,” (DownBeat, 2014) and “among the very best trumpet soloists in the world today.” (Journal of the International Trumpet Guild, 2011)

A veteran of the acclaimed ensemble Rhythm & Brass, jazz legend Joe Henderson’s Sextet, William Russo’s Chicago Jazz Ensemble, and the world-renowned Brass Band of Battle Creek, his hundreds of soloist engagements include appearances with the Phoenix Symphony and Thailand Philharmonic Orchestras, the U.S. Army Field

A professor at Virginia Commonwealth University since 2002, Richardson served as International Tutor in Trumpet at England’s Royal Northern College of Music from 2012-15 and at Austria’s JAM Music Lab University from 2018-19.

Trey Pollard is a guitarist, composer, and arranger based in Richmond, VA with a toe in many different genres, from jazz to indie rock and contemporary classical music. As a guitarist, Trey has toured extensively in the US and Europe and performed with artists such as Foxygen, Natalie Prass, Steve Wilson, Rene Marie, Joe Locke, Michael McDonald, Sara Bareilles, Helado Negro, Jason Mraz, Josh Groban, Lola Kirke, and Laetita Sadier (Stereolab). As an arranger/orchestrator he has written for artists such as Mandy Moore, Bedouine, Faye Webster, Natalie Prass, The Waterboys, Foxygen, Matthew E. White and Helado Negro and recorded/conducted his arrangements in studios located in Richmond, New York, Los Angeles, Nashville and London.

Trey released his first solo album of classical chamber music compositions called Antiphone in 2018 and in 2022 Rex Richardson commissioned Trey to compose the trumpet concerto The More They Stay The Same, premiered with the Richmond Symphony under the baton of VCU Music professor Daniel Myssyk.

Trey is a co-owner of Spacebomb Group, a production and management company/record label based in Richmond and is also the owner/founder of Straight Ahead Samples, which creates cutting-edge sampled sound libraries.

Trey received his Bachelor of Music in Jazz Studies from VCUarts Music.

Jazz Studies at Virginia Commonwealth University
The VCU Jazz Studies program has long had a reputation as one of the best jazz performance and writing programs in the region. Our alumni include popular crossover artists/producers such as Nate Smith (Kinfolk), Butcher Brown, No BS! Brass, Matthew E. White, and top-flight jazz performers working with Chick Corea, Wynton Marsalis, Abbey Lincoln, Ray Charles, the Count Basie Orchestra, Mandy Moore, k.d. lang, and Bon Iver. Our graduates have appeared on Saturday Night Live, Conan O’Brien, The Daily Show, The Colbert Report, The Tonight Show, and NPR Tiny Desk Concert. VCU Jazz alumni are active as composers for films, TV, and video games. We are incredibly proud of all our former students, who contribute immeasurably to the common good as superb educators, composers, and performers!
